PUTON & UNITED BREWERIES LIMITED

Coke is it for these Soviets who lined up to sample the cola at a trade fair. Coca-Cola will go on sale in the Soviet Union this summer.

COKE HITS SOVIET SPOT

From Sun-Times Wires

MOSCOW—Come summer, thirsty Soviet citizens will be able to take the cola taste test.

Coca-Cola, being introduced at a trade fair, will go on sale in a market where Pepsi Cola has enjoyed success for 12 years.

Pepsi is available throughout the Soviet Union, but Coke at first will be sold only in Beriozka's, special stores for diplomats and other foreigners, and will be limited to Moscow, a spokeswoman for the import agency Soyuz Plodimport said yesterday.

But Coca-Cola President Donald R. Keough said at his office in Atlanta he plans to have his product in more Soviet cities by the peak summer cool-off season.

Coke sees a new market of 275 million people in the Soviet Union, Keough said in announcing the breakthrough that followed a week of meetings with Soviet officials.

Company officials said selling Coca-Cola in the Soviet Union will coincide with the 1985 FIFA-Coca-Cola Cup for the World Youth Championship, an international soccer tournament. The Soviet Union will be tourney host this year.

Pepsi officials said they were not concerned.

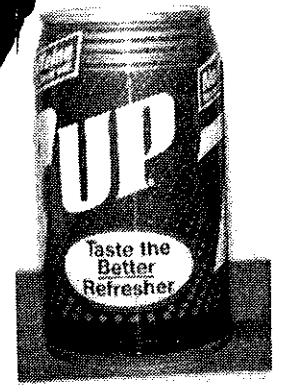

"The selling of Coke in the Soviet Union will not be a problem for us," said Michael Lvov, who is in charge of Pepsi sales in Moscow.
