Pepsi Celebrates 100th Anniversary 50 years in cans

In 1898 Pepsi Cola was born in New Bern North Carolina. Fifty years later, in 1948, the company began to can their product in a cone top can. The Pepsi cone tops were canned in Alton Illinois and distributed from there. There are three different designs and even though the years of production crossed, they are known as the 1949 Bottle Cap, the 1950 Double Dot, and the 1951 Single Dot. In their day they sold at three for twenty five cents. They were never popular and many leaked. They were discontinued and Pepsi didn't can again until the 1960's.
